

Prophet Dionny Baez- Philadelphia, PA (www.dionnybaez.com)

Born July 1979 in Merida, Venezuela. He was brought to the word of God from his parents Pastor Diodoro and Mirqueya Baez. At the age of eight he did his first healing crusade and a year later he recorded his music production and started his first music production and started his theological studies. At the age of twelve he produced his second album, before turning 14 he had already seen 3 people literally coming back from the dead as he ministered, at age nineteen he receives his doctorate in theology making him the youngest ever to graduate at Bethel Bible University, after finishing high school Dionny A. Baez starts Last Generation Ministries which today is a ministry of great evangelistic reach through Television networks on Spanish TBN and other TV's and radio stations all around the world.

In the year 2002 he joined in Holy matrimony with Yarisette Gonzales. In the beginning of the year 2005 He starts DiosTV Network and finishes his third album. Presently Last Generation Ministries is based in the city of Philadelphia impacting the world through the power of God's prophetic anointing. He has the opportunity to travel all across the world spreading the gospel and healing the sick for the glory of God. He is currently working on his newest album together with Tye Tribbett and other well known gospel recording artists.